ADORNO & YOSS LAW FIRM WAS RANKED No. 1 ON THE BEST WORKPLACES FOR COMMUTERS LIST

Miami– October 9, 2007– Adorno & Yoss, LLP, the nation’s largest, certified minority-owned law firm, has been ranked No. 1 on the Best Workplaces for Commuters list from South Florida Commuter Services.

South Florida Commuter Services (www.1800234ride.com) helps promote ride sharing options for commuters in Dade, Broward and Palm Beach Counties and is dedicated to improving South Florida's traffic conditions by promoting alternatives to drive-alone commuting. Adorno & Yoss was ranked No. 1 out of 69 companies who participated in the list. To be on the list, companies had to meet a range of requirements, including a central point of contact for employee commuter information and at least one major commuter benefit, such as a monthly transit or vanpool subsidy of $30 or more, or a significant telecommuting program.

Adorno & Yoss was founded in Miami in 1987 by three attorneys representing mostly local clients. The firm now has more than 250 professionals serving local and national corporations through its 17 full-service offices in major metropolitan areas. In Florida, the firm has offices in Miami, Ft. Lauderdale, Delray Beach, Boca Raton, West Palm Beach, Stuart and Tallahassee. The firm’s significant growth has been recognized by the National Law Journal’s Top 250, which has consistently ranked the firm as the 169th largest law firm in the United States.
